

Women in Leadership: The Age of SHEroes

Susan B. Hitchcock

*Vice President Client Services and Executive Director of Women's Initiatives
Turknett Leadership Group - Atlanta, GA*

A champion of women in leadership and an unabashed advocate for parity in the workplace, Susan is a speaker, mentor, researcher, and leadership consultant. She is also the creator of a resource called "The Age of SHEroes" - a collection of profiles about women of achievement – their personal stories and diverse perspectives on life, leadership, and success.

Previous speaking engagements include:

- ✧ B&PW Annual Conference - 2001
- ✧ Atlanta Women's Network - Luncheon keynote - 2002
- ✧ Conf. Bd. of Canada, Ctr. of Excellence for Women's Advancement –Toronto - 2003
- ✧ WGST Radio / "Job Talk" with Margot King 2003
- ✧ Women's Legacy - Panelist, United Way of Metropolitan Atlanta 2003
- ✧ SHRM Conference 2003
- ✧ Possible Woman Conference – Moderator / Women of Power and Vision Panel - 2003
- ✧ Nortel Women's Network 2004
- ✧ Leadership Lab for Women Conference – Panel Moderator, KSU - 2004
- ✧ Business America, Internet Talk Show "Launching Leaders" with Maureen Roe - 2004
- ✧ Women CIO's Annual Conference, Information Management Forum - 2004
- ✧ BellSouth Network Women's Forum - 2004
- ✧ BellSouth Management Conference - 2005
- ✧ Chamber of Commerce, Clarksville, TN – Keynote – Women's Business Forum - 2005
- ✧ BellSouth Marketing Conference - Career Management Strategies – 2005
- ✧ Jewish Professional Women's Network - 2005
- ✧ Prime Power Leadership Conference – 2006
- ✧ Agnes Scott College - Senior Transitions – 2007
- ✧ UPS – Women in Leadership - Strategic Life Planning - 2007

Susan is a native of Franklin, KY, a cum laude graduate of Agnes Scott College and Boston University's Leadership Institute. Before joining Turknett in 1992, Susan had a very successful corporate career with BellSouth (now AT&T) where she held key positions in Network Services and in the Management Assessment and Training organization. As a community volunteer, she has been a literacy tutor, a crisis counselor, and a teen mentor. Currently, Susan is on the board of the Possible Woman Foundation International where she has served as a member of the Scholarship Committee. She has also served on the boards of the Atlanta Women's Network (AWN) and the Georgia Executive Women's Network (GEWN) and held positions on the Mentoring and Scholarship Committees. She has also been an advisor for Women's Legacy of United Way. Previously, Susan received GEWN's Founders' Award for Leadership and was profiled in Atlanta Magazine in 2003. In 2006, she served as a judge for Women in Technology's Women of the Year Awards and has been a mentor with Pathbuilders for the past 2 years. In 2007, Susan became a Charter Board Member of the Georgia Institute for Women – an initiative of the Georgia Commission on Women. Personally, Susan is "Xanna" to three spirited granddaughters and one "bodacious" grandson – ages 5 to 9.

Contact Susan at 770.270.1723, or email her at susanhitchcock@turknett.com