Turknett Leadership Group Launches Human Performance Division

Turknett Leadership Group, noted practitioners in the area of leadership and organizational assessment and development, is pleased to announce the expansion of their services to include a new Human Performance Consulting Division. Randall H. Lucius, Ph.D., a recognized expert in such areas as competency modeling and selection system design, will join Turknett to head the new division.

Lucius has been in the leadership, employee and organizational assessment business for more than 10 years. His work has included design of structured interviews, test validation, audits of performance management systems and large-scale employee opinion surveys. His clients ranged from The Coca-Cola Company and United Parcel Service, to Solvay Pharmaceuticals and the Edison Electric Institute.

“We are very excited about adding Dr. Randy Lucius to our team,” said Robert Turknett. “He brings such a wide range of experience in the many important areas of human performance. The new division he heads will significantly expand the capabilities we can offer our clients.”

Turknett’s Human Performance Consulting Division will focus on high quality solutions in areas such as:

- Job Analysis
- Competency Modeling
- Selection and Assessment
- Assessment Centers for Selection & Development
- Performance and Career Management
- HR Systems Review
- Organization Development

Turknett Leadership Group has assessed and developed high level leaders and their organizations for more than 20 years. Adept at the use of sophisticated proprietary assessment tools and individualized coaching, Turknett is also known for its accurate diagnosis and design for effective interventions.
