

MBA Women International presents a panel discussion on March 27, 2013
“Leadership at Every Career Stage”

You are invited to a panel discussion entitled “Leadership at Every Career Stage,” presented by the MBA Women International Greater Atlanta Chapter on Wednesday March 27, 2013 at the UGA Executive Education Center in Atlanta. Four panelists will discuss how leadership demands have changed and what lessons have been learned as they have navigated their careers from new managers to mid-career to senior leadership positions. This discussion about leadership and empowerment is ideal for women at all career levels, whether you are currently a leader or embarking on a leadership path.

Featured panelists:

- Susan B. Hitchcock, Advisory Board, Formerly VP Client Services & Executive Director, Women’s Initiatives for Turknnett Leadership Group
- Stacey Andrick, VP Inside Sales at SourceHOV
- Natascha Barney, RN, Director of Emergency Services at Emory Johns Creek Hospital
- Jamie Cotton, Logistics & Transportation Manager at Oldcastle Enclosures

Wednesday March 27, 2012 6pm – 7pm
Registration at 5:30pm
Networking 7pm – 8pm

UGA Terry School of Business Executive Education Center in Atlanta
One Live Oak Center, 3475 Lenox Road NE
Atlanta, GA 30326
404-842-4825

Link for event directions: <http://www.terry.uga.edu/atlanta/directions.html>

$25 for members, $30 for non-members
Parking is included and light refreshments will be served.

Register at: <http://www.eventbrite.com/event/5733083808#>

MBA Women International is a not for profit organization dedicated to the advancement of business women as corporate leaders, executives and entrepreneurs – enriching workforce diversity around the world.